

WE SAIL FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

As a family-owned company, we build on the legacy of previous generations to shape the future. Long-term vision is integral to our DNA.

Providing innovative maritime solutions is at the heart of everything we do. It is how we create value for our clients, our people and for maritime ecosystems.

Edouard Louis-Dreyfus, President, Louis Dreyfus Armateurs

FAMILY SPIRIT

Thanks to our Family Spirit, we create a supportive environment for all stakeholders, appreciating their unique talents and individual value.

Louis Dreyfus Armateurs is a family-owned company. This provides the spirit and the framework for the close relationships we forge with all our people, seafarers and partners.

DRIVING SPIRIT

At Louis Dreyfus Armateurs, our name is our bond. Our Driving Spirit upholds our commitments to our people, clients and the environment.

We hold ourselves to a standard of excellence in our work, our partnerships, our responsibilities and our industry as a whole. Our Driving Spirit embodies our motivation to fulfil our commitments and build a bright future for the next maritime generation.

PIONEERING SPIRIT

Our Pioneering Spirit leads us to pursue and implement new ideas and reach for a better, more efficient and sustainable maritime industry.

Louis Dreyfus Armateurs has spanned five generations with a strong pioneering and innovative spirit. Proposing new technologies to our customers and anticipating our clients' future needs are plainly part of our DNA. Our rich heritage, audacity and attention to our stakeholders' challenges motivate us in sailing towards new frontiers.

TEAM SPIRIT

Through our Team Spirit, we recognize that together we are more efficient, more resilient, and able to exceed expectations while achieving our long-term vision.

Even the most sophisticated vessel is only as good as its crew. At Louis Dreyfus Armateurs we stand together, as one family, one team. This means we are able to navigate both good times and bad and give more to our clients and partners.
